

2 Days Lake Garda - Monte Baldo

BULLETIN 1

Monte Baldo (2218m on the sea level) and Lake Garda in northern Italy offer a harmonious blend of natural beauty and cultural richness. Monte Baldo, known as the “Garden of Europe,” boasts diverse flora and breathtaking views, attracting hikers and nature enthusiasts. The mountain range gracefully overlooks Lake Garda, Italy’s largest lake, surrounded by charming towns and vineyards. Whether exploring Monte Baldo’s hiking trails or enjoying the tranquility of Lake Garda’s crystal-clear waters, this region provides a captivating retreat for adventure seekers and those seeking relaxation alike.
